

TO CELEBRATE K. P. JUBILEE

Greatest Celebration Will Be Held in Washington Next Week

Washington, D. C., Feb. 14.—Thursday next will be the golden jubilee or fiftyth anniversary of the founding of the Knights of Pythias, and lodges in every part of the United States and Canada are preparing to celebrate the event in an appropriate manner. The order was founded in this city, and the greatest celebration will be held here. The exercises will begin Wednesday and continue through the remainder of the week. The grand lodges of all the states and provinces will be represented by delegates.

The celebration will be ushered in Wednesday evening with a reception and entertainment to be given by the Pythian Sisters of the District of Columbia. Thursday afternoon the jubilee exercises will be held in the ballroom of the New Willard Hotel. Supreme Chancellor Thomas J. Carling, of Macon, Ga., will preside, and a number of prominent speakers will be heard. Among those present will be Abraham D. Vanderveer and Edward S. Kimball, who were the first members initiated into the order.

The celebration will be continued Thursday evening with an anniversary mass meeting. Secretary of State William J. Bryan, who is past chancellor of Lincoln Lodge of Lincoln, Neb., will deliver an address on "Fraternity as Exemplified by the Knights of Pythias." Supreme Vice Chancellor Brigadier General S. Young, of Ohio, will speak on "Friendship." Supreme Prelate Joseph H. Sparling, of Tennessee, on "Charity," and Supreme Master of Eschequer Thomas D. Meares, of North Carolina, on "Benevolence."

Friday will be devoted largely to a review of the work of the several branches of the order by their officials and prominent members. Maj. General Arthur J. Stoddard will speak for the uniform rank of the order, Union 25, Unit of Indianapolis for the insurance department, Imperial Prince Charles E. Rice for the Dramatic Order Knights of Khorassan, and Mrs. Ida M. Johnson of Colorado, the supreme chief, for the Pythian Sisters.

The formal exercises of the jubilee will conclude Friday evening with a great mass meeting at the New Willard Hotel, at which Supreme Vice Chancellor Young will preside. There will be addresses, one by Walter E. Ritchie, past supreme chancellor, on "The Lesson of Friendship," and the other by Dr. Allen A. Stockdale, of Toledo, on "Pythian Power."

Order's Splendid Growth.
In the whole range of fraternal and auxiliary societies there is probably none that can claim the growth of Pythias in its record of growth. Fifty years ago the order was unborn. Today it is the third largest organization of its kind in America, its membership being exceeded only by that of the Free Masons and the Odd Fellows.

It was on February 19, 1864, that James H. Rathbone, a New Yorker who was employed in one of the gov-sermon, 3 p. m.

Lake Linden, St. David's Mission, Library Hall—Evening service and sermon, 6:30 p. m.—Rev. Howard Ziegler.

Lenten Suggestions.
Have a definite Lenten rule, and let it be a rule that will turn you from it.
Abstain from all worldly pleasures—it is not meat that we should indulge in, but in the pleasures of the great fast of the Son of Man.

Shall not we Thy sorrows share,
And from earthly joys abstain, Fasting with unceasing prayer, Glad with Thee to suffer pain?

Attend as many of the church services as possible.
Be more earnest and regular in your private prayers.
Give some time each day to devotional reading.
Deny yourself some luxury often, and let the cost of it be added to your Easter offering.

Receive the Holy Communion, first preparing for it by special self-examination and prayer.

TAMARACK, OSCEOLA, BOSTON.

Rev. W. H. Collycott will be at the Osceola church Sunday morning and in the evening. Gust Donald will preach.
Lydia Donald will preach at the Tamarack church in the morning and Rev. Collycott will preach in the evening.

The pastor will preach at three o'clock in the afternoon at the Boston M. E. church and J. Crawford will preach in the evening.

SEXAGESIMA SUNDAY.

In many of the churches of the copper country Sunday will be marked with special patriotic service in memory of the martyred president, Abraham Lincoln. Special sermons and special music, with patriotic hymns, will constitute the services.

CALL EXTENDED
TO REV. BROOME

Calumet Baptists Would Fill Pu-lit in Local Church

At a business meeting of the Calumet Baptist church held this week, it was voted to extend to Rev. George W.
Broome of La Salle, Ill., who recently visited Calumet, the call to the pastori-ate of that church. Rev. Broome's recent visit here was at the invitation of Calumet Baptists who wanted him to look over the local field with a view of permanently locating here and at the same time expressed a desire to become acquainted with him. He made a very favorable impression upon members of the church congregation, at all times having a message of interest to deliver and a pleasing manner of expressing that message.

An early answer is expected from Rev. Broome and the members of the local church are hopeful that it will be a favorable one. The Illinois pastor seemed to be pleased with local conditions as he found them and satisfied that there is an opportunity to make the Calumet Baptist church one of the largest in the community and a power for great good.

Valentine Party.

The Florence Nightingale class of the Laurium Methodist church will entertain this evening at a Valentine party in the church parlors. The young ladies who compose this class have worked diligently to arrange a unique program and they are confident that those who attend this event will enjoy themselves.

ESSAY CONTEST
FOR FINE PRIZES

Program Under Auspices of Sacred Heart Holy Name Society

Sunday evening, Feb. 22, under the auspices of the Holy Name society, the senior class of the Sacred Heart high school will present an interesting and pleasant program in the auditorium of the Sacred Heart high school.

The main feature of the evening will consist in the rendition of an essay contest, in which there is a strong and enthusiastic competition for three prizes, offered by the Holy Name society. The subject of the young competitors is: "Missionaries of the Upper Peninsula." The decision for the awards will be based upon extent of research, facts and general composition.

The prizes will consist of three volumes of Cardinal Gibbons' works, The Manual of Prayers, by the same author and a handsome rosary.

The judges selected by the Holy Name society are: Fr. Bezek of Houghton; James V. Gaul of Houghton and Mrs. Peter Ruppe, Sr., of Calumet.

The members of the Holy Name society extend a most hearty and cordial invitation to all, and especially to the honorable bodies of the Ancient Order of Hibernians, Knights of Columbus, and Catholic Order of Foresters.

FEATURE CLUB PARTY.

Laurium Band Arranges Splendid Program of Skating Numbers.

All arrangements have been completed for the skating and dancing party to be conducted at the Palestra next Friday evening, February 20, under the auspices of the Feature Club, a new Calumet social organization, which promises to provide numerous novelties for this event. For example, the club announces that the Tango will be permitted, more than that, it will be encouraged, for it has been arranged to conduct a prize contest for Tan-goers. This does not mean the so-called vulgar Tango will be tolerated, for the club members declare such is not the case, but the genuine Tango, which critics declare is a very artistic dance.

There will likewise be skating races, with suitable prizes, for couples, gents and boys. John Johnstone of the Calumet Y. M. C. A. will act as starter for these races and M. W. Youngs, as judge of the finish. Another novelty which will be introduced is an exhibition of dancing on skates, by experts from both Houghton and Keweenaw counties.

The members of the club expect many skaters, dancers and spectators will be present from the Portage Lake towns, Torch Lake towns and other parts of the district.

The Laurium band has arranged a splendid program for this event, as follows:

1—"Silver Bells."
2—"Moonlight on the Nile."
3—"I've Mean You Lost Your Dog." 4—"Silver Threads Among the Gold."
5—"On Mississippi."
6—"Danube Waves."
7—"Peg O' My Heart."
8—"Weinerburger."
Intermission.

9-10—Racing. Couples, Boys under 16, and Boys over 16. Also fancy skating in center ice.

11—"Persian Rose." 12—"Wedding of the Winds." 13—"Pride Tango." Too Much Mustard."

14—"Mein Thüringen." 15—"O You Tango Step."
16—"Blue Danube."
17—"In My Harem."
18—"Good Night Nurse."

ENTERTAINS AT SHOWER.

Miss Mary Munch entertained at her home in Laurium last evening at a novelty shower in honor of Miss Mary Munch, who will shortly become the bride of John Sullivan of Osceola.
The evening was very pleasantly spent and luncheon was served.

ROYAL
Has No Substitute

LAUGHS AT McNABB SUIT.

"38 in Love With 72? Ridiculous!" the Millionaire says.

A Washington dispatch says:
"She has no broken heart. It is ridiculous to think a woman of her age—she is not 38—should be in love with a man 72."

That is the way John S. Kinney, millionaire mine owner, sums up the breach of promise suit for $500,000 filed against him by Mrs. Ida S. McNabb, a Milwaukee widow.

"She is after my money," he said, "but she will not get one cent of the ten millions they say I have."

Mr. Kinney has secured the services of a woman lawyer. Her name is not divulged, but it is thought she is Mrs.
Ellen Spencer Mussey, founder of the Washington college of law, where Kinney's daughter is being educated.
Mrs. McNabb claims she would have been married to Kinney now had it not been for his two sons and his daughter, who, she says, diverted his affections.

Miss Kinney emphatically denies these allegations, saying no one on earth could make her father change his mind once he had it made up.

The case will be tried early in the spring. Both sides are preparing for a bitter legal contest.

Discussing the case, Mrs. McNabb said, according to a Milwaukee dispatch:

"When a woman reaches middle age, with the one ambition of educating three children, she goes mighty slow in such affairs," she said.

"I will tell a little story later that needs no justifications nor excuses."

Mrs. McNabb was born in Escanaba, Mich. From there she went to Virginia, Minn., where her husband, William McNabb, was interested in mining property. Later she returned to the Michigan copper country, and devoted all her time to charitable work. It was while working in this capacity, says Mrs. McNabb, that she met Mr.
Kinney.

Mrs. McNabb formerly resided in Laurium. She was employed as sales-woman for the Good Will Farm.
